

1st Announcement for
Beekeeping Symposium in October 2014 in Syros- Cyclades island

The Chamber of Cyclades and the Institute of Apiculture -ELGO ' Dimitra' in collaboration with the Foundation 'Eva Crane Trust' (in honor of the great EVA CRANE) is organizing a Symposium on " Beekeeping in the Mediterranean from antiquity until today : historical discoveries and current issues» during 9, 10 and 11 October 2014 in Ermoupoli -Syros in the Cyclades Chamber Conference Room & local offices of the Chamber of the islands Paros , Naxos , Mykonos , Santorini , Milos , Tinos , Andros .

The main objective of the Symposium is to present the findings related to the history of beekeeping in Greece and the Mediterranean , the experiences on the use of local honeybee breeds and broad the discussion on current practical issues on a proper, safe and effective fight against bee diseases.

More details about the organization , program and invitation for talks will be announced soon.

For the organizers,
Giannis Roussos, Chairman of Chamber of Cyclades
Fani Hatjina, Hellenic Institute of Apiculture